

A Lullaby

Music and Lyrics by Aline Shader (1999)

Verse 1

If you were a flower
Then I would be the springtime
To wake you with sunbeams
And sprinkle the dew

And if you were a river
Then I would be an ocean
I'd always be ready
To welcome you

Bridge

I never will forget
The moment that we met
Just the one I hoped I'd see
Now that you are near
I want you to hear
How you mean the world to me

Verse 2

If you were a hillside
Then I would be a rainbow
To watch and delight you
For mile after mile

And if you were a sleepy child
I would be your blanket
A very soft blanket
To warm you all the while
