

All at Once (Extended)

Music and Lyrics by Aline Shader (1995)

Verse 1

Suddenly a sight and sound
Come together and rebound
Memories are lost and found
All at once

Verse 2

Suddenly I wonder why
Didn't know the time went by
Can't decide to laugh or cry
All at once

Bridge

Photographs of yesterday
Frame a place far away
Skip the pages 'til the last
Seems too slow, seems too fast

Verse 3

In the greater scheme of things
Winters turn to budding springs
And a choir of children sings
All at once

Interlude

Ah....
All at once

Verse 4

In the greater scheme of things
Winters turn to budding springs
And a choir of children sings
All at once
