

Any Day Now

Music and Lyrics by Aline Shader (2001)

Verse 1

Any day now
Clouds will disappear
Clear the rain awhile,
I'll say, "Farewell, sadness!"

Verse 2

Any day now
Sun will be aglow
Everywhere I go
There's a smile of gladness

Bridge

You can find a silver lining
Troubles fading by and by
Through the darkness what is shining?
Ribbons of stars in the sky

Verse 3

Hoping somehow
That the time is right
Might be very soon
I'll be waiting anyway
Any day now, any day

Interlude

This decision is a vision
Of a brighter side
May I be your guide?
I'm advising, realizing

Verse 4

Any day now
Clouds will disappear
Clear the rain awhile,
I'll say, "Farewell, sadness!"

Verse 5

Any day now
Sun will be aglow
Everywhere I go
There's a smile of gladness

Bridge

You can find a silver lining
Troubles fading by and by
Through the darkness what is shining?
Ribbons of stars in the sky

Verse 6

Hoping somehow
That the time is right
Might be very soon
I'll be waiting anyway
Any day now, any day
Any day now, any day
