Music and Lyrics by Aline Shader (1978)

Verse 1

I need you just like the meadow needs the lark
Like the moon needs the mountain to climb up and see
All the little children need springtime to play in the park
And the summer needs autumn to sleep

Verse 2

I need you just like the babble needs the brook
Like the flute needs the notes of the melody playing
A little story needs letters for words in a book
And the branch needs the willow to weep

Bridge

Icicles need winter breezes for freezes
And snowmen need snowflakes to grow. Oh.

Verse 3

I need you just like the locket needs the key
Like the wayfaring stranger needs roads upon which they can wander
I need you just like I hope you need me
And I need to be sure that you know
